Sacrament of Fear

...cloaked in the guise of a terrorist act, a father takes revenge for the senseless and brutal death of his son

Following a series of deaths around the world from seemingly "natural causes," the Special Assistant to the Minister President of The Netherlands, Frans Roobeek, recognizes a special link between the list of victims and his American friend, Wes Franklin...all are members of a secret intelligence network—The Cloister of Akhenaten, or Ankh Network—and Wes may soon become the next member to meet his end by "natural causes"!

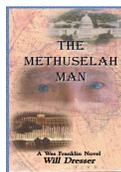

Wes Franklin emerges from the jungles of Columbia with his technology-savvy girl friend, Ashley Jordan, and his weapons expert and Persian strongman, Aryana, to investigate the deaths. Together, they chase down clues from Holland, Scotland, and Damascus to uncover and foil a diabolical plot to launch an unprecedented wave of terror somewhere in Europe.

ForeWord Clarion Review

...a compelling and enjoyable read, certain to leave readers eagerly awaiting the next book.

The Methuselah Man

"God, I never knew a man who wanted so much to be dead...or deserved it more."

President Treem, an idealist young president, is determined to change the nuclear face of the world by unilateral example. Vice President George S. Austin, an old-school war hero, is convinced these new policies are both naive and dangerous. Secretary of State Crandall Forsyth, fearing the Vice President is about to take drastic steps to subvert the President's nuclear agenda, and uncertain how deep the Vice President's conspiracy runs, turns to the one man outside of the government he can trust—his long-time friend Wes Franklin, a member of an independent international intelligence group known as THE ANKH NETWORK.

Into this central plot steps Jared Kennan Cain, a man with a perfect genetic structure who appears to be immortal. Cain has escaped from The Genetic Discovery Corporation, a Palo Alto-based secret government organization tasked with developing biological weapons systems. Two years of experiments to study Cain's unique system have been documented in a file labeled THE METHUSELAH MAN. Could he be the ultimate weapon?
